FOREIGN MINISTRY ISSUES STATEMENT ON U.S. RELATIONS

Havana PRELA in Spanish 2222 GMT 10 Jan 74 C--FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

[Text] Havana, 10 Jan--The Cuban Foreign Ministry today issued a statement concerning the news conference in Mexico City of Cuban ambassador to Mexico Dr Fernando Lopez Muino. The text of the Cuban Foreign Ministry statement is as follows:

In view of that fact that some of the replies given by the Cuban Revolutionary Government's ambassador to Mexico, Dr Fernando Lopez Muino, during his news conference have been captiously interpreted, the Cuban Foreign Ministry considers it necessary to make the following explanations:

1. As Ambassador Lopez Muino pointed out, the position of the Cuban Revolutionary Government regarding its relations with the United States has been repeatedly and unequivocally expressed by the first secretary of the Communist Party and prime minister of Cuba, Commander in Chief Dr Fidel Castro Ruz.

2. The break in diplomatic relations between the United States and Cuba was the decision of the U.S. Government. The blockade imposed on our nation constitutes an aggressive act in response to the Cuban people's firm resolve to exercise fully their sovereignty. Therefore, the Cuban Revolutionary Government does not have to--nor will it--take the first step toward the reestablishment of those diplomatic relations, without which the Cuban Revolution was consolidated and has developed.

3. It is hardly necessary to repeat that prior to the moment the U.S. Government decides to initiate some official exchange concerning these problems, there would have to be an unconditional lifting of the blockade against Cuba. Cuba will not accept discussions under any other conditions.

4. Once the blockade is lifted, discussion of the differences between Cuba and the United States would have to begin with the willingness of the U.S. representatives to admit that the United States does not have any right to intervene indirectly in affairs related to the sovereignty of Latin American nations. As Prime Minister Fidel Castro has said, the role of policeman which the United States assigned itself in Latin America can no longer be applicable in this historic period.

5. Although the Guantanamo Naval Base lacks strategical importance as far as Cuban national defense is concerned, the problem of its removal from Guantanamo would have to be the main point of any bilateral dialog between the two nations. Cuba has not renounced--nor will it renounce--its sovereignty over this place of national territory, and the demand for unconditional withdrawal cannot be modified due to reasons stemming from the strategic or tactical value of that military position.

6. Cuba would not allow these discussions to include any problem that would infringe the right of our independent and sovereign nation to conduct its foreign policy or to direct its international relations in a manner that best suits its national interest.

Reference my memorandum of 1-3-74 recommending the Director indicate a time convenient to see captioned individual on which the Director indicated he would see him at 10 a. m. on 1-23-74.

Lofton was introduced to the Director by Inspector Bowers and they met for approximately 45 minutes during which they held a general discussion concerning police training matters, the handling of riot situations, Soviet intelligence activities, and general problems relating to law enforcement.
Mr. Lofton explained to the Director that his column is now carried in more than 60 newspapers around the country and stated he expects soon to begin appearing twice weekly on the Channel 7 evening and late night news broadcast with a brief editorial commentary. He stated there also is a possibility of participating in television programs in New York and a radio program in New York. He told the Director that he is "on the FBI's team," and can be called on at anytime to assist us in publicizing certain events, issues, or viewpoints.

Following the meeting with the Director, Lofton was brought to my office and I talked with him for about 45 minutes. Lofton stated he had recently completed reading John Barron's book on the KGB and he wondered if there had been any diminution of intelligence activities in this country on the part of the Soviets in view of detente. He recalled this matter had come up during his conversation with the Director and Mr. Kelley had commented that the Soviets have been very busy. Lofton said this might make an interesting topic for a column and wondered if we might be able to furnish him any specific material to show that the Soviet intelligence apparatus is still functioning at a normal level in this country. He also stated that he is considering writing one or more columns regarding Cuba particularly to counter the current campaign being waged toward diplomatic recognition for Cuba. He said it is his view that Castro and his Cuban henchmen are as bad as ever, and he feels this country should not be recognized. He asked if it would be possible to obtain some incidents to indicate the continued agitation of the Cubans against our democratic form of government. I have instructed Special Agent [REDACTED] of the Research Section to research this matter to see if there is any material which we might furnish Lofton in this regard.

Lofton was furnished copies of the FBI Annual Report, the Year End Press Release, and the recent press release concerning the number of law enforcement officers killed in 1973. He also was furnished a biographical sketch of the Director and we will keep him in mind concerning future material.

SUBJECT: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

Transmitted herewith to the Bureau are nine copies of an LHM dated and captioned as above.

(C)
The article referred to in the LHM by the Cuba FIA did stir a great deal of Cuban protest and telephone calls to WFAB denouncing deceit involved in pulling a photograph from the archives taken 11 years ago of a Cuban woman with a basket of groceries and endeavoring to pass it off on the American and Cuban public as though it were taken during the present time and serves to show that food rationing has been relaxed in Cuba.

We have continued to interview a representative number of Cuban refugees arriving in the US and we have not even found one refugee who will state that there is more an abundance of anything at the present time than there was one year ago or in 1970.

The Bureau was just furnished a letter and LHM captioned ECONOMIC MATTERS - CUBA, Bureau file 110-6-210, dated 1/25/74, quoting a (C) there is no ulterior motive in the statements made by a man like (C) and which probably more nearly portrays the exact economic conditions in Cuba than the obviously tourist motivated propaganda appearing in "The Miami News" and "The Miami Herald."

[REDACTED] has stated that Cuban Premier FIDEL CASTRO will be "toning down" his abrasive, anti-American tirades as a result of the visit to Cuba by Soviet Leader LEONID BREZHNEV. She has been quoted in "The Miami News" in the past as indicating that a majority of Cuban refugees prefer a renewal of relations by the US with Cuba. b7C

"The Miami News" of January 16, 1974 carried a headline, "Readers Divided Over Renewal of Normal U.S. - Cuban Relations."

There followed names and quotes of numerous individuals, most of whom seem to favor renewal of US-Cuban relations. [REDACTED] was quoted as saying that he thought b7C

the idea of renewing relations with Cuba was really a great idea and concluded by stating that the whole Caribbean is basically united, "except for Cuba and it's our fault."

~~██████████~~ stated he was a Cuban-born US citizen and his wife and children are US citizens who have lived here for 13 years. They would like to renew relations because they would like to visit their families in Cuba where his 12-year-old mother, a retired schoolteacher, lives.

Some Cuban Americans were quoted as stating that this country, the US, should not recognize Cuba as long as FIDEL CASTRO and his communist regime is in Cuba.

The Herald of January 30, 1974 quoted BREZHNEV as praising the Cuban Revolution but "stressed peace." He noted that the past year had brought an improvement in relations between Russia and the US which served to hasten a lasting peace. CASTRO was quoted as stating, "The red flags of internationalism will line the path to liberty and fraternity of all the peoples of the world."

DECEIT IN ARTICLE
IN "MIAMI HERALD"

"The Miami Herald" on the 14th of January 1974 published a report by its ~~██████████~~. The front page carried the headline that Cuban economy has improved since the hard conditions of 1970. The article then proceeded to point out how food rationing had been relaxed, everything was more plentiful, and published some pictures in alleged proof of the improving economic conditions.

One such picture was that of an obviously young, pregnant, Cuban woman pushing a food basket half loaded with packages of food. The caption under the photograph stated, "Housewife Heads Home...Food Rationing Relaxed."

This article and this photograph touched off a storm of protest.

SUBJECT: FOREIGN AFFAIRS - CUBA

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 1/18/02 BY 102290 [REDACTED]

This is informative memorandum to advise you of results of conference held with Army representatives on 9/23/74.

On the morning of 9/23/74, SAS [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] of CI-3 met with the following representatives of the Counterintelligence Analysis Detachment (CIAD), U. S. Army: [REDACTED] Cuban Desk and [REDACTED] SAS [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] met with these representatives at their request.

The CIAD representatives inquired as to what might happen in this country should U. S. resume normal diplomatic relations with Cuba. The representatives were advised that should normal diplomatic relations be resumed we would anticipate that there would be a reopening of a Cuban Embassy in this country and the reopening of a number of Consulates throughout this country. Based on our experience with the number of personnel at the Cuban Mission to the United Nations, we advised them we would expect that there would be a number of Cuban intelligence personnel assigned to the Embassy and the Consulates when reopened and this would cause an increase in Cuban intelligence activities in the U. S.

It was also pointed out to the CIAD representatives that if relations with Cuba are restored, that the possibility exists that the Cuban exiles in this country would react violently to this turn of events. Further, that it could be anticipated that they would turn their attention not only to the bombings and attacks on Cuban personnel abroad but also to bombings and attacks on Cuban personnel assigned to this country and to attacks on other individuals in this country who lend vocal support to the resumption of normal relations with Cuba.

The above-mentioned CIAD representatives ~~were~~ most appreciative of the opportunity to discuss this matter with Bureau representatives and indicated that any pertinent information coming to their attention of interest to the Bureau would be promptly made available to us.

THE "GUARDIAN"

The December 1, 1961, edition of the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" noted that the "National Guardian" (known since 2/10/38 as the "Guardian") was established in 1947 as a "progressive weekly" and stated that "Although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia." The Communist Party, USA, is a subversive organization that serves as an arm of the international movement dominated by the Soviet Union.

The "Guardian" is currently located at 33 West 17th Street, New York, New York, and is self-described, in its May 9, 1973, edition, as an "independent radical newsweekly."

An article appearing in the February 12, 1968, edition of the "New York Times" notes "The 'Guardian' is considered the largest radical weekly in America" and "takes a strong left position, but is not identified with any organized group because it believes that an American left ideology is still in the making." This same article quoted one of the editors of the "Guardian" as saying "our job is to build a Radical Movement. To quote the Cuban Revolutionaries, we are not only to write about it but also to move along with it...we are movement people acting as journalists."

Prensa Latina (PL) is a Cuban news agency organized June 16, 1959, with headquarters in Havana, Cuba, and branches throughout the world. Its New York Office is located in Room 367, United Nations Secretariat Building, New York City. It follows an editorial policy which is anti-United States and pro-Soviet Union.

On April 16, 1962, PL filed a statement with the United States Department of Justice conceding that the agency receives the sum of $125,000 (Cuban) monthly from Radio Difusora Nacional, an agency of or under the supervision of a ministry of the Government of the Republic of Cuba.

On April 18, 1962, PL entered a plea of nolo contendere in Federal District Court, Washington, DC, to a charge of failure to comply with the provisions of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, and was fined $2,000.

Other sources consulted were [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]This investigation was initiated in order to determine the reactions of local Cuban exiles to the visit to Cuba of Senators JAVITS and PELL and in order to determine if there might be any planned demonstrations or violence if the Senators should come through Miami.The Senators who went to Cuba and the United States Secretary of State may be interested in some of these details. It is, of course, very well known that CASTRO and his communist forces have been heavily involved in Chile and they fled there by the plane load and boat load when ALLENDE fell. There is ample propaganda material to refute all of CASTRO's wild accusations against the United States and CIA in Chile while he allegedly has "lilly white hands" himself.

DIRECTOR, FBI (109-12-228)

9/27/74

LEGAT, CARACAS (109-4) (P)

PHM - VENEZUELA

POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

Re Caracas letter dated 7/30/74.

Spiraling inflation, rising oil prices, and impending diplomatic relations with Cuba have occupied the spotlight of Venezuelan news in the recent past.

The Venezuelan Government is quite concerned about inflation and openly blames the industrialized nations of the world for this development. All suggestions by world leaders such as President FORD to the effect that petroleum prices have been a major factor in the spiral have not with protests of "self-defense" and a recent petroleum tax increase was made retroactive January, 1974 in an effort to reduce the unfair price gain enjoyed by the large petroleum companies. Also, Venezuela has been a leader of a group of oil-producing countries dedicated to higher prices and reduced production in an effort to conserve available natural resources. Local reaction to oil consumer nation appeals and threats to obtain lower petroleum prices has been strongly in favor of the official government position and criticism of the U. S. has been particularly virulent.

Cuban-Venezuelan relations seems better now than at any time since the Organization of American States approved economic sanctions against Cuba. Venezuela strongly supports the lifting of these sanctions, an action deemed a foregone conclusion for the meeting of ministers in Quito, Ecuador and renewal of diplomatic relations as soon thereafter as practical. Most observers predict the renewal of formal diplomatic relations between Cuba and Venezuela will occur in December, 1974.

On 12/5/74, [REDACTED] Department of State, and [REDACTED] Cuban Affairs Office, Department of State, met with Special Agents [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Messrs. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were particularly interested in a summary of Cuban matters.

SA [REDACTED] orally briefed the Department of State officials concerning Cuban exile activities. SA [REDACTED] briefed them concerning Cuban intelligence activities and SA [REDACTED] briefed them concerning Venceremos Brigade activities. [REDACTED] commented that he had recently been appointed [REDACTED] having recently served with the Department of State in the Soviet Union, was new to his job and was most appreciative of the efforts made to acquaint him with various facets of Cuban activities set forth above. He indicated that he was regularly receiving FBI material concerning Cuban matters and was most appreciative. Both he and [REDACTED] extended their full cooperation to the Bureau in any manner that could be of assistance.

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

The Swiss German-language weekly newspaper, "Vorwaerts" (Forward) contained an article in the October 17, 1974 issue which read as follows in translation:

"Jose Marti Brigade Back from Cuba

"(A.B.) A week ago the Swiss participants in the Jose Marti International Work Brigade returned to Switzerland after a more than five weeks stay in Cuba. The Brigade, which bore the name of the Cuban director and revolutionary, consisted of delegations from ten European countries, among others for the first time Portugal and Spain.

"The Brigade, organized by the Switzerland-Cuba Association, together with the Cuban Institute for Peoples' Friendship, offers the unique opportunity to experience the Cuban people and their revolution. Besides the productive work in building a new village near Havana, the participants in the Brigade study the reality of a socialist revolution, in direct contact with the responsible institutes and organisms.

"High point of the stay was attendance at the meeting on the 14th anniversary of the founding of the CDR (Committee for the Defense of the Revolution) at which Fidel Castro traditionally holds an important speech. Castro emphasized once again the readiness of Cuba to support any government which carried on an honest anti-imperialist policy. He put the main emphasis this time on the unqualified support of Venezuela against U.S. imperialism in the question of the control of Venezuelan petroleum.

"For the members of the Brigade it was also the life in the camp, which bears the name of the founder of the Cuban

(SOCIALIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO) (PSP)

30032
The PSP is a Marxist-Leninist organization which advocates total independence for Puerto Rico from the United States. PSP was founded in Puerto Rico in November, 1971, at the Eighth Annual Convention of the Movimiento Pro Independencia de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) when the membership of the latter organization voted to change its name to PSP.

The PSP openly supports the revolutionary government of Cuba and maintains permanent representation in Havana. The official PSP publication, "Claridad", has frequently claimed the right of PSP to use violence to accomplish its revolutionary objectives.

IMPORTANT COVERAGE IN CUBAN EXILE AND PUERTO RICAN GROUPS CLAIMING RESPONSIBILITY FOR BOMBINGS

Political Matter Cuba

An unprecedented number of bombings has taken place throughout the United States and there is no indication that this type of activity will abate in the foreseeable future. Many of these bombings are within our investigative jurisdiction.

Responsibility for some of these bombings has been claimed by Cuban exile and Puerto Rican pro-independence groups. While some of these groups are known to us, there is a paucity of information concerning others. Intensive investigative efforts are being made to solve the bombings being claimed by these groups, but it is apparent that our existing informant coverage, for the most part, has not pinpointed the identities of those in the groups actually responsible for the bombings. It is essential that every effort be made to develop informants who can provide this type of data.

Recipient offices which have such groups in their territories will review their files on such groups to determine whether some are fully identified and whether their informant coverage is of the type that can provide the identities of those perpetrating the bombings. If a realistic evaluation indicates that the coverage is not of the type cited above, then every logical effort must be made to develop it. In cases where the group is not fully identified, a separate investigation should be initiated to identify it and steps taken to develop the quality informant coverage cited above.

Offices in whose territories such groups exist will upon completion of the evaluation of their coverage advise the Bureau of the results under the caption of the individual groups together with their recommendations within 30 days of the receipt of this communication in their offices.

Should the conference materialize, it would appear that the American left will be represented by a sizeable contingent from throughout the U.S. representing a hodgepodge of organizations. It can be expected that the PSP and the PRSDC in New York will function as the "screening center" for candidates desiring to attend the conference, closely coordinating the selection process with personnel from the Cuban Mission to the United States.

The planned conference may or may not be affected by the recent USDS "overture" made by Secretary KISSINGER on 2/28/75, regarding Cuban-American relations. It is noted that the U.S. News media has continually emphasized, in recent years, that the Cuban Government has allegedly withdrawn its "revolutionary activities" in Latin America and elsewhere. It would appear that the planned conference clearly discloses Cuba's support and embracement of the Puerto Rican independence movement, which is, as manifested by the PSP a Marxist/Leninist revolutionary movement.

International Conference of Solidarity
with the Independence of Puerto Rico,
Havana, Cuba, September, 1975

The January 19, 1975, issue of "Claridad", supplement published in New York City, reported that an International Conference of Solidarity with the Independence of Puerto Rico will be held in Havana, Cuba, in September, 1975.

"Claridad" is published by the Puerto Rican Socialist Party (PSP) (see Appendix).

"Claridad" reported that two members of the Political Commission of the U.S. Branch of the PSP, identified as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], had been dispatched to Cuba for a period of three months to do preparatory work toward the planned conference. b7C

The January 27, 1975, issue of the San Juan Star, in an interview conducted with a representative of the Puerto Rican Solidarity Day Committee (PRSDC), reported that the PRSDC ... "hopes to organize a North American contingent to represent the U.S. left at an international convention to be held in Havana this year to promote the cause of Puerto Rican independence..."

"The Puerto Rican Solidarity Day Committee is a nation-wide committee of all people and nationalities in the United States. Its purpose is to demonstrate support for the independence of Puerto Rico. The Committee has branches in major cities across the country." (PRSDC pamphlet).

The PRSDC was the sponsor of the Puerto Rican independence day rally held at Madison Square Garden in New York City on October 27, 1974.

PARTIDO SOCIALISTA PUERTORRIQUENO (PSP) (SOCIALIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO)

The PSP is a Marxist-Leninist organization which advocates total independence for Puerto Rico from the United States. PSP was founded in Puerto Rico in November, 1971, at the Eighth Annual Convention of the Movimiento Pro Independencia de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) when the membership of the latter organization voted to change its name to PSP.

The PSP openly supports the revolutionary government of Cuba and maintains permanent representation in Havana. The official PSP publication, "Claridad", has frequently claimed the right of PSP to use violence to accomplish its revolutionary objectives.

International Conference of Solidarity
with the Independence of Puerto Rico,
Havana, Cuba, September, 1975

Reference is made to Federal Bureau of Investigation memorandum dated March 10, 1975.

The following excerpt was taken from an article titled "Build U.S. solidarity with P.R." which appeared in the March 19, 1975 issue of the "Guardian", reporting on a conference held by the Puerto Rican Solidarity Committee (PRSC) at Rutgers University, Newark, New Jersey, March 1 and 2, 1975:

"Several ideological struggles took place at the conference."

"HAVANA CONFERENCE"

"The most heated of these was on a recommendation that the PRSC play a leading role in helping to organize a North American delegation to a conference this fall in support of Puerto Rican independence to be held in Havana, Cuba. An initiative for this conference was taken last year by the World Peace Council (WPC)."

"Principal opposition to this proposal was expressed by the OL (October League) representative, who charged that the WPC's well-known commitment to 'detente' meant that the conference would be compromised from the outset."

"Some doubts about the international conference were also expressed by El Comite whose representative cautioned the PRSC not to become 'too conference-oriented' in developing a program to support the independence struggle."

International Conference of Solidarity
with the Independence of Puerto Rico,
Havana, Cuba, September, 1975.

"Others raised questions about how the conference would be organized, how the delegates would be selected and the political line of the projected North American delegation."

"In the course of discussion, it was made clear that the conference itself would be held under the auspices of an international preparatory committee that would include representatives of the Puerto Rican independence movement, the PRSC, the Democratic Republic of Vietnam and the Democratic Peoples Republic of Korea, Cuba, the Soviet Union and various national liberation movements of the third world."

"It was further established that the PRSC would help initiate an ad hoc committee that would be the sole North American organizing committee for the conference and would select delegates; that the host country would issue visas solely on the basis of the requests of the ad hoc committee; that the North American delegation would have an independent political line; and that the question of independence for Puerto Rico would be the sole topic for the conference."

"The conference voted 79-8 to endorse the conference. The Guardian voted for the proposal and had spoken in favor of it, although agreeing that the WPC's stand on 'detente' and its historic association with the Soviet bloc meant that concrete measures guaranteeing the independence of the U.S. delegation were crucial."

The PRSC is the outgrowth of a loose network of committees and individuals who organized the mass rally in support of Puerto Rican independence at Madison Square Garden in New York City last October 27. It is the first national U.S. organization to take up support for the cause of Puerto Rican independence as its primary emphasis. ("Guardian", March 19, 1975).

Representatives meet to plan international conference PR

HAVANA, Cuba—More than fifty delegates representing ten international organizations and 34 countries, began meeting last Sunday in this city in order to form the International Preparatory Committee (IPC). The Committee's task will be the organization of the International Conference in Solidarity with the Independence of Puerto Rico.

The session opened with remarks from the president of the Cuban Council for the Peace and Sovereignty of Peoples, Juan Marinello, who is also a member of the Central Committee of the Cuban Communist Party

Noel Colón Martínez, president of the Puerto Rican Peace Council, has been in Havana since last Thursday, with Fermin Arraiza, Deputy Secretary General of the Puerto Rican Socialist Party, and Gilberto Concepcion Suarez of the Puerto Rican Council, to participate in the meeting.

In the closed session held last Monday the IPC was elected and documents relevant to the Conference were approved. The Conference is expected to take place in Havana at the end of August or in early September.

The International Conference will have as its main objective the expression of combative solidarity of all anti-imperialist forces, and those committed to democracy, social progress, and peace, with the independence of Puerto Rico.

Among the Latin American countries represented are: Haiti, Guyana, Peru, Argentina, Panama, Colombia, Venezuela, Costa Rica, Mexico, Uruguay, Guatemala, and Chile.

The Chilean delegation is led by Beatriz Allende, daughter of Salvador Allende, who was assassinated during the fascist coup of September 11, 1973. It was informed that all of the Chilean progressive organizations signed a document expressing solidarity with the Conference.

The socialist countries sending delegations are: the Soviet Union, Hungary, Bulgaria, the German Democratic Republic, Czechoslovakia, Poland, the Peoples Republic of Korea and the Democratic Republic of Vietnam.

Asia will be represented by delegates from India and the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam. The Arab nations will send representatives from Palestine, Syria, and Iraq. The Movement for the Liberation of Angola, as well as Sierra Leone and Guinea will represent Africa.

Countries in Western Europe sending delegates are France, Finland, and Spain, who along with the delegation of the United States, Cuba, and Puerto Rico complete the 34 represented countries.

EDITORIAL

World solidarity with Puerto Rico

A meeting of great historical significance and of vital importance to the national liberation struggle of Puerto Rico has just ended. We are referring to the meeting held in Havana, Cuba this past week, around the task of organizing the International Conference of Solidarity with the Independence of Puerto Rico.

The meeting was convened to elect the International Preparatory Committee for the International Conference, to be held in Havana from September 5th to 7th, 1975. This will be the first conference of such scope to be held in solidarity with the Puerto Rican people in struggle; a conference that continues the glorious path of the Puerto Rican Solidarity Day held last October 27th in Madison Square Garden.

Present at this first meeting in Havana were representatives of the socialist world, of the progressive nations in the world and of the various national liberation movements of the world. There were delegates from such countries as the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the Democratic Republic of Vietnam the Popular Liberation Movement of Angola, the Chilean resistance, the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam and Cuba. There were 34 national and 10 international organizations present at the meeting.

All the nations and organizations at the meeting understood precisely and were able to comprehensively appreciate the vital importance which Puerto Rico has for yankee imperialism. And we say vital because it is an intrinsic part of the very life of yankee imperialism.

Puerto Rico is the principal military fortress for United States penetration of Latin America and the rest of the world. It is in Puerto Rico that plans for the economic, political and military control of the world have been rehearsed: it is from Puerto Rico that sister nations in Latin America have been invaded; it is in Puerto Rico that Latin American military lackeys are trained to oppress their people in defense of Washington interests. It is in Puerto Rico where the United States has almost half its investments in Latin America, more investments than it has in entire continents and where profits average $2,423 per minute. In two minutes, the yankees take out of Puerto Rico more than the measly average annual salary they pay Puerto Rican workers. It is a super-exploitation reaching levels never before attained in the history of imperialist plunder.

An understanding of the importance of Puerto Rico to the United States system of world domination is vital to all progressive forces in the world; to support the growing struggle of the Puerto Rican people against this oppression is the task of the world in struggle and of all those countries enjoying their definitive independence.

The International Conference in Solidarity with Puerto Rico must be seen within this context. It is the expression of all progressive and revolutionary peoples in the world; it is their taking of sides in the struggle Puerto Rico wages against American plunder; it is siding with Puerto Rico and against the United States. The effects of the conference to be held in September will echo throughout the entire world. And that echo will express the determination of a people to be free and their decision to make sure that they will be.

On the basis of available information, American Left participation in pre-conference activities and the conference itself in September, is being "controlled" by the Puerto Rican Solidarity Committee (PRSC) whose National Board and National Staff members represent a hodgepodge of various organizations and ideologies throughout the United States.

However, as reported in referenced LHMs dated 4/11/75 and 4/18/75, captioned conference was reportedly initiated by the World Peace Council, which is Soviet-oriented. The underlying organization (movement) behind the PRSC, if any, has not been clearly defined on the basis of information reported or developed to date. (u)

New York will follow and report pertinent developments re captioned conference.

Granma reported that [redacted] addressed the preparatory meeting on the afternoon of March 31, 1975. Granma reported: [redacted] stressed the defeat suffered by the United States at the UN and he refuted the remarks made on Puerto Rico by [redacted] regarding the Cuban position toward the struggle of the people of Puerto Rico."

A photograph of [redacted] sitting alongside [redacted] of the Puerto Rican Socialist Party, appeared on page 2 of the April 13, 1975 issue of Granma Weekly Review. (They were not identified nor did the caption reflect whether the photograph had been taken at the preparatory meeting).

b7C

V. United States Delegation

The April 15, 1975 issue of Puerto Rico Libre!, a bulletin published in New York, New York by the Puerto Rican Solidarity Committee (PRSC), reported that the U.S. delegation to the preparatory meeting held in Havana, Cuba, on March 30 and 31, 1975, consisted of [redacted] and [redacted], National Board members of the PRSC, and three (unidentified) members of the U.S. Continuations Committee of the World Peace Council (see Appendix).

b7C

The Puerto Rican Solidarity Committee is an organization which supports the national liberation struggle of Puerto Rico and self-determination for Puerto Rican people. (Source: Puerto Rico Libre! Masthead).

Granma, in its April 13, 1975 issue, refers to the PRSC as the U.S. Committee of Solidarity with Puerto Rico.

International Conference of Solidarity
with the Independence of Puerto Rico,
Havana, Cuba, September, 1975

VI. Press Conference

Granma reported that a press conference was held in Havana on April 1, 1975, by the Secretariat of the preparatory committee. The purpose of the press conference, according to Granma, was to brief journalists on the results of the preparatory meeting just completed and of arrangements being made for the conference in September. Granma reported that the press conference was presided over by the following individuals:

DR. JUAN MARINELLO (VIDAURRETTA), president of the preparatory committee and member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba.

[REDACTED] member of the Secretariat of the World Peace Council.

[REDACTED] president of the Puerto Rican Peace Council. b7C

[REDACTED], of the Cuban Movement for Peace and the Sovereignty of the Peoples.

The World Peace Council (WPC) is a worldwide Soviet-oriented communist front, which was formed at the conclusion of the second World Peace Congress held in Warsaw, Poland, November 16-22, 1950, under communist initiative. Its headquarters are in Helsinki, Finland. It continues today as a major international communist effort to discredit the United States.

Other Conference Participants

The following excerpt appeared in the July 23, 1975, issue of the Guardian (see Appendix), under the by-line of executive editor IRWIN SILBER (conference delegate noted above):

"Solidarity with the struggle for Puerto Rican independence is the theme of a forthcoming international conference that will be held in Havana, Cuba, Sept. 5-7."

"About 250 delegates from around the world are expected to attend. Particularly prominent will be delegations from Latin American and other third world countries, among them Vietnam, Cambodia, the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, Cuba, Algeria, Guinea-Bissau, the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO) and resistance forces from Chile. Another large bloc from the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe is expected."

"A 60-member delegation from Puerto Rico representing a broad spectrum of political forces on the island will comprise the largest contingent at the conference. Second in size will be the U.S. delegation of 20."

International Conference of Solidarity
with the Independence of Puerto Rico,
Havana, Cuba, September, 1975

Conference Background

The following excerpt appeared in the April 27, 1975, issue of Granma Weekly Review, the official organ of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba, in an interview with [REDACTED], identified by Granma as a member of the [REDACTED] of the Communist Party of Cuba and [REDACTED] b7C

Granma: "Why has the World Peace Council adopted the solidarity with Puerto Rico as one of its fundamental tasks? What circumstances determine this position?"

[REDACTED]: "The World Peace Council has for some time focused its attention on the Puerto Rican reality, but it is true that recently the interest of the organization in this connection has been growing considerably. At a meeting held in Sofia in February of 1974 it was resolved to hold an international conference on the Puerto Rican case. In October last, at a meeting held in Panama, the Bureau of the Presidency of the World Peace Council proposed to the Cuban delegation that Cuba host this event. In December, at the meeting in Prague of the National Committees for Peace, this initiative was ratified and the preparatory meeting that just took place was agreed upon." b7C

A Preparatory Meeting of the International Conference of Solidarity with the Independence of Puerto Rico was held in Havana, Cuba, on March 30 and 31, 1975.

Information concerning the World Peace Council is set forth in the appendix attached hereto.

International Conference of Solidarity
with the Independence of Puerto Rico,
Havana, Cuba, September, 1975

"Guardian" Viewpoint of Conference

The following excerpt appeared in the July 23, 1975, issue of the Guardian, supra, under the by-line of executive editor IRWIN SILBER:

"Despite virtually unanimous support for the cause of Puerto Rican independence among progressive forces in the U.S., controversy has surrounded the planned conference ever since it was first announced. An international preparatory meeting, held in Havana March 30-31, was itself the scene of intense ideological struggle over the proposed political framework for the conference. Forces representing the Soviet bloc countries posed the struggle for Puerto Rican independence primarily within the context of 'detente,' while others placed principal emphasis on Puerto Rico's links with other national liberation struggles in the third world."

"This division was reflected most keenly in the participation of two separate U.S. groups in the preparatory meeting. One group was the Puerto Rican Solidarity Committee (PRSC), sponsors of the massive Oct. 27th Madison Square Garden rally in support of Puerto Rican independence and now the one permanent North American organization whose principal purpose is building U.S. support for the independence movement. The PRSC was [REDACTED] b7c

"The other group attending the preparatory meeting in Havana consisted of three representatives of the World Peace Council forces in the U.S., all of whom are leading figures in the U.S. Communist Party. Both groups have seats on the conference secretariat."

"The U.S. Support Committee for the International Conference is an uneasy coalition between the PRSC, the Communist Party, the Puerto Rican Socialist Party (PSP) and a number of different individuals and organizations who have been prominent in the struggle for Puerto Rican independence."

International Conference of Solidarity
with the Independence of Puerto Rico,
Havana, Cuba, September, 1975

"Some organizations, such as the October League and the Congress of Afrikan People, have opposed the conference and decided to boycott it because of the prominent role played by the Soviet-dominated World Peace Council in initiating the Meeting."

"For its part, the Communist Party has been somewhat less than enthusiastic about the participation in the U.S. Support Committee of a wide variety of anti-imperialist and Marxist-Leninist forces it has dismissed as 'ultra-leftists' and 'Maoists' on other occasions."

APPENDIX

THE "GUARDIAN"

The December 1, 1961, edition of the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" noted that the "National Guardian" (known since 2/10/68 as the "Guardian") was established in 1947 as a "progressive weekly" and stated that "Although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia." The Communist Party, USA, is a subversive organization that serves as an arm of the international movement dominated by the Soviet Union.

The "Guardian" is currently located at 33 West 17th Street, New York, New York, and is self-described, in its May 9, 1973, edition, as an "independent radical newsweekly."

An article appearing in the February 12, 1968, edition of the "New York Times" notes "The 'Guardian' is considered the largest radical weekly in America" and "takes a strong left position, but is not identified with any organized group because it believes that an American left ideology is still in the making." This same article quoted one of the editors of the "Guardian" as saying "our job is to build a Radical Movement. To quote the Cuban Revolutionaries, we are not only to write about it but also to move along with it...we are movement people acting as journalists."

WORLD PEACE COUNCIL

The World Peace Council (WPC) is a worldwide Soviet-oriented communist front, which was formed at the conclusion of the second World Peace Congress held in Warsaw, Poland, November 16-22, 1950, under communist initiative. Its headquarters are in Helsinki, Finland. It continues today as a major international communist effort to discredit the United States.
